

99 Comical Moments From The Brief Unpresidented Reign Of Donald Trump

Donald Trump's presidency was a whirlwind of controversy, chaos, and absurdity. But amidst all the drama, there were also plenty of moments of unintentional comedy. Here are 99 of the most comical moments from Trump's time in office:

1. Trump's inauguration speech, in which he famously declared, "I will build a great wall—and Mexico will pay for it." (Mexico did not pay for the wall.)
2. Trump's interview with Fox News's Sean Hannity, in which he said, "I know more about ISIS than the generals do." (Trump has no military experience.)
3. Trump's tweet in which he misspelled the word "unpresidented" as "unprecedented." (Trump is not known for his spelling skills.)
4. Trump's visit to the White House Situation Room, in which he reportedly asked, "Where's the button?" (The button Trump was referring to is the nuclear launch button.)
5. Trump's meeting with the Boy Scouts of America, in which he told them to "be prepared" for "the future." (Trump is not known for his preparedness.)
6. Trump's tweet in which he said, "covfefe." (The meaning of this tweet is still unknown.)

7. Trump's interview with The New York Times, in which he said, "I'm a very stable genius." (Trump has a history of making grandiose claims about his intelligence.)
8. Trump's visit to the World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland, in which he said, "I'm the only one who can fix this." (Trump has a history of making grandiose claims about his abilities.)
9. Trump's interview with Fox News's Bill O'Reilly, in which he said, "I'm the most successful president in history." (Trump is not the most successful president in history.)
