

Liberty Begins: A Historical Novel of Survival and Freedom

In the heart of the 18th century, in the midst of a world divided by race and class, a group of enslaved people dared to dream of a life beyond the confines of their plantation. Led by the indomitable spirit of Abigail, a young woman determined to break the chains that bind her, they embark on a perilous journey towards freedom.

Their journey is fraught with danger and adversity. They must navigate treacherous swamps, evade relentless pursuers, and overcome the deep-seated prejudices of a society that sees them as nothing more than property. But their spirit remains unbroken, and their determination to achieve liberty sets an example for all who yearn for a better life.
