A Comprehensive Approach

"Scales and Exercises for Viola" offers a holistic approach to viola playing, covering all essential aspects of technique and musicianship. From the fundamental building blocks of scales and arpeggios to advanced techniques such as double stops and vibrato, this guide leaves no stone unturned in your quest for viola mastery.

Tailored to Your Needs

Whether you're a beginner just starting out or an experienced violist looking to refine your skills, "Scales and Exercises for Viola" is designed to meet your individual needs. The carefully graded exercises and detailed explanations make it accessible to players of all levels, ensuring that you'll progress at a pace that's just right for you.

Scales: The Foundation of Technique

Mastering scales is the cornerstone of viola playing. This guide provides a comprehensive collection of scales, from the fundamental C major to more complex scales such as the chromatic scale. Each scale is presented with detailed fingerings, bowing articulations, and rhythmic variations to enhance your dexterity and accuracy.

Arpeggios: Building Harmonic Proficiency

Arpeggios serve as the building blocks of chords, and mastering them is essential for developing harmonic proficiency. "Scales and Exercises for Viola" includes a wide range of arpeggio exercises, covering all major, minor, and dominant arpeggios. Through these exercises, you'll gain a deep understanding of chord structures and their application in musical contexts.

Essential Techniques: Unlocking Expressiveness

Beyond scales and arpeggios, this guide delves into essential techniques that will elevate your viola playing to new heights. Learn how to execute double stops with precision, add vibrato to your tone, and develop a fluid and expressive bow technique. Each technique is thoroughly explained and accompanied by targeted exercises to accelerate your progress.

A Companion for Every Step

"Scales and Exercises for Viola" is not just a book; it's a companion that will guide you every step of your viola journey.
