

Sisters In The Struggle: A Journey of Resilience and Empowerment

In the face of adversity, sisters have always been there for each other. They have been a source of strength, support, and love through thick and thin. In the book Sisters In The Struggle, authors Lisa and Laura James share their powerful and moving story of growing up in poverty, overcoming addiction, and finding their voices as activists.

Lisa and Laura grew up in a poor neighborhood in Chicago. Their parents were both addicts, and they often had to fend for themselves. They were exposed to violence, drugs, and prostitution from a young age. Despite the challenges they faced, Lisa and Laura were determined to make a better life for themselves.
