Synopsis

In the untamed wilderness of antebellum Florida, a solitary cowboy named Boone traces the rugged trail from St. Augustine, the oldest continuously inhabited European settlement in North America. Driven by a troubled past and a thirst for redemption, Boone encounters a cast of unforgettable characters who shape his journey.

There's the enigmatic Seminole princess, Silver Moon, who possesses secrets that could alter the balance of power in the region. The ruthless outlaw, Blackjack, who threatens to plunge the territory into chaos. And the enigmatic preacher, Father Miguel, whose faith guides him through the darkest of times.

As Boone navigates this treacherous path, he must confront his own demons and make choices that will forever alter his destiny. Along the way, he encounters the harsh realities of frontier life, the beauty of the untouched wilderness, and the enduring power of human connection.
