100 YEARS

Words and Music by
JOHN DIMITASIS

Moderately fast

The first system of musical notation for '100 Years' is in 4/4 time and G major. It begins with a piano (p) dynamic and a tempo marking of 'Moderately fast'. The melody starts on a G4 note. The first measure has a G chord, the second a C chord, the third an Am7 chord, and the fourth a D7sus chord. The bass line consists of a steady quarter-note accompaniment.

The second system continues the melody. The first measure has a G/B chord, the second an Em chord, the third an Am7 chord, and the fourth a D7sus chord. The fifth measure has a D7 chord, and the sixth measure has a D chord. The bass line continues with quarter notes.

The third system includes the first line of lyrics: "The first century was the longest and the best." The melody is on the treble clef, and the bass line is on the bass clef. The chords are G, C, and Am7.

The fourth system includes the second line of lyrics: "Each one of us try and live our lives right, counting the minutes." The melody is on the treble clef, and the bass line is on the bass clef. The chords are D7sus, G/B, and Em.
