Understanding the Orton-Gillingham Approach

The OG approach is grounded in the principles of cognitive science and linguistics. It recognizes that reading and spelling are complex processes that involve a multitude of brain functions, including:

- Phonemic awareness
- Phonics
- Decoding
- Sight word recognition
- Spelling patterns
- Morphemes

OG instruction systematically addresses each of these components, helping students develop a solid foundation in literacy. It emphasizes the following key elements:

- Multi-sensory input: Engaging the senses of sight, hearing, touch, and movement to reinforce learning.
- Sequential and cumulative: Building skills step-by-step, allowing students to master concepts before moving on.
- Explicit and systematic: Providing clear and consistent instruction, broken down into manageable chunks.

- Individualized: Tailoring instruction to meet the unique needs of each learner.

The Power of 35 Lesson Plans

"35 Lesson Plans: An Orton-Gillingham Reading and Spelling Program" provides a ready-to-use curriculum that seamlessly integrates the principles of the OG approach. Each lesson plan is designed to last 30-45 minutes and includes:

- Clearly stated learning objectives: Outlining the specific skills students will acquire in each lesson.
- Step-by-step instructions: Guiding educators through the multi-sensory activities and exercises.
- Supplementary materials: Providing downloadable resources such as spelling lists, flashcards, and worksheets.
- Assessment components: Regularly evaluating student progress to inform instruction and provide feedback.

The 35 lesson plans cover a wide range of topics, including:

- Phonics: Letter and sound recognition, blending, segmenting, and manipulating sounds.
- Sight words: High-frequency words that are not easily decodable.
- Spelling: Regular and irregular spelling patterns, morphemes, and spelling rules.

- Reading comprehension: Developing strategies for understanding written text.
- Writing: Building fundamental writing skills, such as sentence structure, grammar, and punctuation.

Benefits for Students

Implementing the OG approach through "35 Lesson Plans" offers numerous benefits for students:

- Improved reading skills: Enhanced phonemic awareness, decoding ability, and comprehension.
- Stronger spelling: Mastery of spelling patterns and rules, leading to improved accuracy.
- Increased confidence: Success in literacy empowers students and fosters a positive attitude towards learning.
- Reduced frustration: Structured and individualized instruction reduces frustration and promotes perseverance.
- Long-term success: OG instruction provides a solid foundation for lifelong literacy skills.
